If persons do not appear and cannot be found at the designated time for their examination, they will be provided one additional opportunity to appear. If they fail to appear again, they will be sought out, counseled, and if they wish, be given a new exam date. If they do not appear for the newly scheduled exam date, they will lose their opportunity to participate in the U.S. resettlement program. If, after counseling, they state that they do not wish to participate in the program for U.S. resettlement, they will be asked to sign a statement to that effect.
